

Family Notes for the IEP Meeting

Please bring these notes to the IEP meeting. You have a different perspective about your child's and we value your information. We hope you will share your insights with the staff.

My child's strengths are:

My child has trouble with:

My child's favorite things to do are:

My child really dislikes:

I am worried about:

I wish my child could:

The most important thing my child needs to learn this year is:

When my child is an adult, I want him/her to:

Other important information you should know about my child: